SOCIAL NEWS

CALENDAR

The Shakespeare Class of Misses Williams and McIlheny's School will leave tomorrow morning for a week's camp at High Bridge. They have planned to visit Brooklyn and Shakertown. Miss Williams, Miss Alice Sage and Mrs. Hal P. Headley will chaperone. Those who go are Misses Margaret Davis, Addie Stoit, Katherine Brown, Alma Headley, Jane Scott, Jane and Louise Welsh, May Bruce Clark, Messrs. George Cassell and Price Headley.

The Alethea Literary Society of the Kentucky University will give their final open session Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in Morrison Chapel

Mr. Howard H. Gratz will entertain his friends Wednesday with an annual dinner in Gratz Park.

The marriage of Miss Marion Worley of this city, and Mr. Clyde Moore Shropshire, of Rome, Ga. will be celebrated Wednesday at noon at the home of her sister, Mrs Samuel Steadman, on the Versailles road. Rev. Mr. Edwin Muller will officiate.

The Johnson School commencement will be held at the Opera House Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

A piano recital, followed by a Cantata, "The Coronation of the Rose," will be given at Kimball Hall Friday evening, June 14, by Miss Cora Early and her pupils.

The monthly meeting of the Lexington Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy will be held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Court House.

The Lexington Chapter D. A. R will give a garden party Friday afternoon and evening at the home of Miss Mary Bryan, on South Limestone street. As it is National Flag day the party will be a patriotic celebration, and also will have a business feature, the hope being to raise money for the patriotic work of the Chapter

The Public and members of the Civic League and the Woman's Club who have been taking much interest in the summer play-grounds for children have arranged next Saturday afternoon for the opening day, and ask all who will contribute croquet sets, old or new, games of all kinds, swings, etc., for the children's enjoyment to send them to Miss Mary McClelland at Sayre Institute some time this week The large lot on Manchester street which has been selected for the grounds has been made attractive with flower beds, trees and shrubery.

The opening dance at Torrent Springs will be given Saturday evening. A Louisville orchestra will furnish music and many from this city expect to attend.

—⊕⊕—

The young men of the L. A. C. entertained Friday evening with a cotillion at Merrick Lodge, in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Guy Briggs' wedding party. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis P. Brown were the leaders. The favor table was presided over by Miss Elliott Shanklin and Mrs. Claude M Johnson It was covered with large leghorn hats, loaded with pink, white, red, yellow, blue and green paper chrysanthemums, matrimonial themotus, pipes, fancy fans, gilt picture frames and wicker wall baskets with a large red bow of crepe paper and a bunch of yellow daisies tied on the backs and other pretty favors.

The ball opened with a grand march, and many attractive figures were led. The feature of the evening was the closing march In this the girls wore their hats and carried staffs and the boys carried flags, as they were led through the intricate march. Saxton's band furnished the music, a special program having been arranged for the occasion. In the first eight couples were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Brown, Mr. Joseph Power, of Frankfort, and Miss Katherine Price, of Louisville; Mr. Ernest Bradley and Miss Frances Duke, of Louisville; Mr. Foster Helm and Miss Edna La Menssena, Mr. White, of West Virginia, and Miss Emma Labrot, of Frankfort; Dr. Fred Walz and Miss Sue Johnston, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Mr. George Shelby and Miss Carrie Taylor, of Knoxville; Mr. Archie Cook and Miss Mary Hendrick Swigert, of Frankfort. Other dancers were Mr. Edward Pearce and Miss Alvina Fieber, Mr. Bruce Campbell and Miss Elizabeth Estill, Mr. John Payne and Miss Elizabeth Scott, Mr. Edmond Shelby and Miss Margaret Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Hughes Bronston, Mr. George Stoll and Miss Bertha McKee, of Versailles; Mr. Frank McKee, of Versailles, and Miss Bowles, of Tennessee; Dr. Craig Falconer and Miss Rosa Johnson, Mr. Stuart Allen, of Cincinnati, and Miss Willie Shelby, Mr. Atilla Norman and Miss Sue Scott, Mr. Ben Bosworth and Miss Fanny Duncan, Mr. Don Foreman and Miss Anna Pearce, Mr. Allen Beard and Miss Carrie Harting, Mr. Thrashley Berryman and Miss Sarah Scott, Mr. Thomas Lewis and Miss Lucy Webb, Mr. Manly Kemper and Miss Tillie Engman, Mr. Clarence Julian, of Frankfort, and Miss Kate Brennan Mr. Henry Mourning and Miss Mary Sparks, of Nicholasville; Mr. Butler Thompson and Miss Ethel Watts, Mr. John Maguire and Miss Lelia Forman, Mr. Julian Estill and Miss Kate Alexander, of Paris; Mr. Vernon Forman and Miss Madeline Bridgeforth, of Louisville; Mr. George Weeks and Miss Belle DeLong, Mr. Charlie Strother and Miss Martha Swope, Mr. John Berkley and Miss Harriett Darnall, Mr. George Clay, of Paris, and Miss Laura Estill, Mr. Smith Oldham and Miss Elizabeth Brown, Mr. Ashbrook Frank and Miss Mary Weiser, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Anderson, Mr. Sewell Combs and Miss Bessie McCann, Mr. Jake Gay and Miss Florence Winn, of Winchester; Mr. B. Curtis Evans, of Winchester, and Miss Laura Spurr, Mr. Charlton Graves, of Versailles, and Miss Louise Strother Helm, of Louisville, and Miss Stanley Reese, of Winchester; Mr. Robert Brown and Miss Jane Todd Watson, Mr. James Winston and Miss Alice Bradley, Mr. Buford Graves and Miss Sallie Bronston, Mr. Paul Bartlett and Miss Estelle Whitney, Mr Coleman Calloway and Miss Sarah Case, of Long Island; Mr and Mrs. Thomas Morgan, Mr and Mrs Alex Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Tobwater. The stags were Messrs. Henry Duncan, E. H. Alexander, Steve Sharp, Frank Justice, James Combs, Solomon Van Meter, Van Denny, George Graves, Henry Foushee, Dyke Hazelrigg, Edmund Taylor, of Frankfort. The chaperones and those who enjoyed watching the cotillion were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Estill, Mrs. George Darnall, Mr and Mrs. Tobias Gibson, Miss Bryan, Mrs. Wallace Searles, Mrs. William Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Engman Mrs Winn, of Winchester; Miss Emma Barnes, Miss Viola Harting, Miss Mary Allen Miss Clara Cochran, Mrs. Bishop Clay Mrs. D. G. Falconer Mrs. George Draper Kelly, Mrs. Henry Martin Skillman, Miss Kate Whittaker, Mrs. Bettie May. Misses Alex and Elizabeth May, Mrs. Henry Berry, Mrs. Clark Kellogg, of Richmond; Mrs. James L. Watson, Mrs. William E. McCann, Mrs. Lee Huffman, Miss Elsie Stoll, Miss Mary Swift, Miss May Shanklin, Miss Kathleen Bryan and others.

President Alexander Reed Milligan entertained the faculties and graduates of the Bible and Art Colleges of the Kentucky University Friday afternoon with a reception from 4 to 6 o'clock at Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Coleman's home on South Broadway. The parlors and halls were decorated in crimson roses, the University colors. Across one end of the back parlor was the large crimson flag with K. U. in gold letters in the center. In here Miss Eleanor Coleman presided over the fruit frappe. The colors and flags of the university and the graduating gowns worn by the classes made the scene attractive. The host was assisted in receiving by his mother, Mrs. Milligan, and Mrs. B. L. Coleman. The guests were President John William McCarvey, Prof. John Callahan Willis, Gen Wilbur R. Smith, Prof. Joseph Benson Marvin, Prof. Thomas Crain Evans, Prof. Henry Hall White, President Charles Louis Tops, Prof Isaiah Boon Grubbs, Prof Alfred Fairhurst, Prof. Clarence C. Freeman, Prof. Richard Howell Elliett, Prof. Benjamin C Deweese, Prof. Alfred Charles Zembrod, Prof. Samuel M. Jefferson, Prof. Walter G. Conley, Prof. James Andrews, Prof. Milton Elliott, Miss Anna Ruth Bourne, Misses Edna May Ransler, Columbia Davis, Alice Trimble Karr, Messrs. C. J. Armstrong, H. P. Conley, W. A. Fite, W. E. Freeman, Ralph Gebble, C. V. Hardy, M. A. Hart, Dyke L. Hazelrigg, G. W. Hilderbrandt, W. P. Jennings, R. E. Moss, R. T. Nooe, George Ringo, G. H. C. Stoney, W. W. Van Arsdell, R. W. Walalce, Dawson Chambers, Hugh D. Marlaehlan, George Henry Stoney, Milo Atkinson, E. S. Baker, N. H. Brooks, A. T. Campbell, B. F. Creason, H. O. Frank, B. D. Gillispie, J. E. Gorsuch, Gilbert Jones, Alonzo Oder, Charles C. Peck, Roy L. Porter, A. B. Reeves, Marshall McMahon Show, Richard E. Stevenson, Charles R. Vawter, Wilson Walter Wilkinson, Rev. Mark Collis, Rev. I. I. Spencer, Rev. John Shouse, Rev. Edwin Muller, Rev. Kirkwood and Dean Baker P. Lee.

—⊕⊕—

The second of the golf teas which have been arranged by the young ladies of the club for the gentlemen members and their friends was given Friday afternoon on the Fairlawn Links. The feature of the occasion was the putting contest. All entered the sport with enthusiasm in hopes of winning the prizes offered for the lady and gentleman who could put 50 yards in the fewest strokes. After the game it was found that Miss Elsie Stoll had twelve putts made in a score of 36 and was presented with a silver hat pin of crossed golt sticks. Mr. Arthur Joy Dreper made the fewest putts in a score of 34 and received a poster of a Christie golf girl. Miss Janie Todd Watson was given the ladies' booby prize, a golf design filled with bon bons, and the gentlemen's booby, a miniature caddy bag filled with silver golt sticks, was won by Mr. O. L. Bradley.

Makes the children robust—bread made of

Cream Flour

made by Lexington Rolling Mill Co. Ask the grocer for it and insist on getting it.

The hostess of the tea, Mrs. John Greenway, Miss Bell De Long, Miss Virginia Lisle, Miss Rida Payne and Miss Sarah Bullock, received and presided at the large table, which was placed beneath a wide spreading oak in the center of the lawn. At one end was a bowl of lemonade and at the other was Russian tea, lettuce cheese and cucumber sandwiches. Chocolates and mints were also served. The guests were Mrs. Clark Kellogg, Mrs. Sam J. Roberts, Mrs. David Day, of Canton, O.; Mrs. Edwin Muller, Dr and Mrs Benjamin Van Meter, Misses Margaret and Elizabeth Scott, Miss Case, Miss Jessie Falconer, Misses Clay, Miss Elsie Goodloe, Mrs. James Watson, Miss Jane Todd Watson, Misses Lillie and Mame Robinson, Miss Elsie Stoll, Miss Fisher, Mrs. Charles F. Brower, Mrs. Norton Sharpe, Miss Emily McClellan, Miss Erma La Brot, of Frankfort; Mrs. George Shanklin, Miss Betty Weathers, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Curry, Mrs. Nat Pettit, Miss Annie Milward, Miss Margaret Duncan, Miss Kate DeLong, Miss Katherine Price, of Louisville; Miss Alvina Fieber, Messrs. John Brooks, Garland Barr, Arthur Joy Draper, Frank Justice, Dyke Hazelrigg, George Weeks and Thomas Lewis.

—⊕⊕—

On last Friday night the home of Miss Frances G. Elliott, 116 East Maxwell street, the members of Miss Elliott's music class, in the presence of their friends and relatives, gave a musical. The class is composed of Misses Katherine Appleton, Grace Deering, Susan Kidd, Roberta Farra and Elizabeth Rae. After the regular program of solos and duets, Miss Elliott played several numbers.

PERSONALS.

Mr. and Mrs. John Heber Flood left last evening for Torrent, Ky., to spend a few days.

Mr. Walter P. Jennings, of Hillsboro, Texas, arrived in the city yesterday for a visit to friends.

Mr. James E. Tiner left last evening for his home in Indianapolis after a stay in this city.

Miss Kate Brennan left last evening to join her mother at Ocean View, where they will spend the summer with Mr. J. Hull Davidson.

Mrs. William Cassell and children go Tuesday to Bardstown to visit Mrs. Cassell's mother for a week.

A concert will be given at the Opera House Monday evening by the pupils of Mrs. Ella Welsh and by the following pupils of Mr. R. de Roode, viz.: Misses Yeager, Morgan, Asher, Stoll, Moore, Spiers, Dunlap, Blanding, Gunn Estill and Dinelli and Mr. John Gunn. Mrs. Welsh's pupils will not occupy the stage more than one hour—about 9 p. m. Mr. de Roode's pupils will commence. On account of the length of the program, no encores will be allowed. Admission to the dress circle and balcony is free. The parquet, fautenils and boxes are reserved for such persons as prefer to buy seats, price 15 cents. Children under ten years will be admitted, nor will more persons be admitted that the house will seat.

—⊕⊕—

Mr. Ezra T. Fiddler, of Lawrenceburg, who has been visiting at his home, in the country, for two weeks, returned home last evening.

Miss Genevieve Dowaing left Saturday evening for Beattyville to visit friends and relatives for several weeks.

Mrs. Winn and Miss Florence Winn of Winchester were the guests of Miss Emily Barnes for the L. A. C. cotillion Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bond, of Lawrenceburg, have rethirned to their home after a few days' visit in the city.

Mr. Rusk Meek, of near Cynthiana, is the guest of Mrs. Wallace, of West Sixth street, until after the Kentucky University commencements.

Miss Emily Barnes, of Nicholasville, was visiting friends in the city yesterday.

Miss Kate Alexander, of Paris, is spending a few days with Miss Laura Estell.

Mrs. William Wallace and little son, William Mason, and her sister, Miss Kate Whittaker, expect to leave on the 16th of this month for Chicago, where they will join their mother and Mr. Wallace to spend the summer.

Mrs. Lawson Tarlton and little son, Duke, left last evening to spend Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Orville W. Lawson. Mrs. Lawson and baby daughter, Margaret Isabelle, come Wednesday to visit Mrs. Tarlton and Mrs. Lawson's father, Mr. William Kenney, of the country.

Mr. Frederick Eugene Crassons and children, of New Jersey, and Miss Carrie Lee Hathaway, of Winchester, who have been visiting the Misses Robinson, of East Main Street, are now the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Thomas at Estill Springs.

Miss Daisy Troul, of Canton, O, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Sam J. Roberts, of Market street, has returned home.

Miss Rosa McCarthy, of this city, leaves today to visit friends in Cincinnati.

Prof. and Mrs. Richard Johnston, who have been boarding with Mrs. Frank Mussleman, of East Second street, are moving on South Limestone street.

Mrs. H. B. Barclay, of Chicago, leaves this week after a visit to Mrs. James Robinson, of East Main street.

Miss Sallie Barkley is rapidly improving from recent serious illness and has been removed from the hospital to her home.

Mrs A. H Barkley returned yesterday from a visit in Kansas City and St. Louis.

Miss Hettie De Long is entertaining several friends for a few days at her home, on the Russell Cave road. Her guests are Miss Laura Estell, Miss Florence Hudson, Miss Elizabeth Estill and Mr. Julian Estill.

Miss Elizabeth Rash, who has been attending the College of Music in Cincinnati, has returned home, and during the vacation will sing in the choir of the First Presbyterian Church.

Misses Jane Cox and Minnie Horton, of Mt. Sterling, return to their home this evening after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Combs, of Woodland avenue.

Mrs. W. H. Boswell, of Maysville, is spending a few days with Mrs. Edith Cox, of West Third street.

Miss Charlotte Bliss, of Louisville, a graduate this year of State College, who has been with Mrs. Dabney Carr on South Limestone street during the winter, left for her home last evening.

Mrs. Neff and Miss Woolley, of Cincinnati, left last evening for their home after a visit to Mrs. Charles Short, of Market street.

Mrs. Clark Kellogg and baby, of Richmond, Ky., who have been visiting Mrs. Richard Morgan, of West Third street, left last evening for Cincinnati to visit Mr. Kellogg's parents.

Mr. Asa Chinn, who has been seriously ill for several weeks at his home, on East Maxwell street, with inflammatory rheumatism, is improving and was able to be out Friday for the first time. Mr. Chinn expected to leave last Wednesday for Martinsville, Ind., but was not well enough. He goes tomorrow, accompanied by his mother, and will be absent several weeks.

Mrs. E. L. Davis, of Midway, and little daughter visited relatives here yesterday.

Mr. James Bengham is at home from college on a visit to his mother.

Mrs. Henry McDonell and daughter, Miss Julia McDoncll, and Mrs. Robert Bullock leave Tuesday evening for New Mexico to visit Mrs. Thomas Bullock.

Miss Blanche Drake, of this city, is the guest of Miss Annie Spears in Danville.

Misses Maude and Sue Metcalf, who have been members of their cousin, Miss Sallee's, house party in Danville,

(Continued on Seventh Page.)

Our Line of

Shirt Waists

Will Please You.

48c

Gives choice of a good line of Percale Waists in Colors, and Lawn Waists in Black and White. These are new, this season's styles, and are great values at 48c.

75c

Gives choice of a better line of Percale Waists, and they are made as well as most $1.00 Waists.

$1.00

Buys the best White Lawn Waist ever sold for that money. It also gives choice of a very fine line of Percale Waists in colors and black.

Silk Waists

In Black and Colors, and the prices are $4.50 and $5.00.

HAWKINS & SWEENY

Telephone 768. 9 West Main Street.

SILK WAISTS

WE HAVE ABOUT TWENTY (20) COLORED SILK WAISTS MADE OF CREPE-DU-CHENE AND PEAU-DE-SOIE—COLORS, LT. BLUE, PINK, OLD ROSE, LAVENDER, TAN AND BLACK. ALL NEW AND FRESH. BEAUTIFULLY MADE AND PERFECT FITTING WAISTS. THE FOLLOWING

REDUCED PRICES

SHOULD CLOSE THEM OUT AT ONCE:

$7.50 Waists, $5.50

$8 75 Waists, $6.50

$9.00 Waists, $6.50

$ 0.00 Waists, $6.50

WASH SKIRTS

LARGEST LINE EVER SHOWN IN LEXINGTON. $1.25 TO $5.00

Mitchell, Cassell & Baker,

16-18 WEST MAIN.

Kentucky Chautauqua

WOODLAND PARK, LEXINGTON, KY.

FIFTEENTH ANNUAL SESSION

June 25th to July 5th

BRILLIANT LECTURES,

HELPFUL SCHOOLS,

SPLENDID MUSIC,

NOVEL ENTERTAINMENTS.

COLLEGE DAY, JUNE 24. GREAT PROGRAM JULY 4

For Detailed Illustrated Program and all Information, Address, CHAS. SCOTT, Business Mgr. Lexington, Ky

Morris W. Bartlett. J. O. H. Simrall

BARTLETT & SIMRALL

Fire Insurance Agent

COR. SHORT AND MILL STS.

CARPET SHAKING

All-wool and Brussels Carpets cleaned for 3 cents a running yard, and velvets, moquette and Axminster carpets cleaned for 4 cents a running yard. It is the best method of getting rid of moth germs and dirt. Lexington Carpet Cleaning Works, on West Fourth street, near Jefferson. Telephone, 785. J. W. KELLEY, Prop'r.

Stenographer's Office.

SHORTHAND AND TYPEWRITING

Promptly and accurately done. Correctly spelled, punctuated and arranged in proper style.

We write circular letters, specifications for builders, manuscripts for publishers, speeches, commencement essays, etc.

We will address your invitations, or your circular letters, seal, stamp and mail them.

We take care to have all work absolutely perfect.

Give us one order and you will come again.

M. E. MILLIKAN,

Room 30, Northern Bank Building.

Home Telephone 846.

SPECIAL SALE

For ONE WEEK ONLY we will offer any suit in our

Ladies' Tailoring Department

AT A REDUCTION OF 20 PER CENT.

CHINN & TODD.